13 August, Tuesday – Prelim Exams Commence

Good luck to all Grade 12 students with their preparations.

6 September, Friday – Spring Day/Casual Day

We will again be supporting Casual Day for persons with disabilities. Stickers will again be available at school or your local participating retailer.

We are also planning a fun-filled day with activities for the whole school, arranged by our prefects.

20 September, Friday – School Closes

School closes for the third quarter.

Aftercare will remain open during the holiday.

22-27 September – AASC

Good luck to our students attending the All Africa Student Convention!

24 September, Monday – Heritage Day

Aftercare will be closed on this public holiday.

1 October, Tuesday – School Opens

School opens for the fourth quarter.

From the Office:

School Tuck Shop

Sir Gustave and his family has left the ZCS family for their move to New Zealand, we wish them all the best. Ma'am Juandi, responsible for the subject of Hospitality Studies and the school's kitchen, will be taking over the tuck shop as from the start of the third quarter.

Parents will also be able to order home cooked meals, platters, cakes, party packs or any other treats for any event you might have, from the kitchen. Feel free to contact her on 0722063035 or juandi@zwartkopcs.co.za

2020 Enrolment

The 2020 Enrolment Contracts are available and will also be emailed, please let the admin office know should you not receive a copy of the contract.

Please complete and return to the admin office at your earliest convenience, either by hand, email or fax.

As in the previous years, all current students need to be re-enrolled for the next academic year, but do not need to pay a new registration fee.

By doing this, it provides us with an opportunity to update all student and parent details as well as to renew our contract with you, as parents, for one academic year.

Herewith an outline on the school fees for 2020:

	2019	2020
